

YOU LONDON

Leadership Development Weekend

The 2023 YOU London Leadership Development Weekend will take place at the City of London School, Queen Victoria Street, London EC4V 3AL on Saturday 30 September and Sunday 1 October. This exciting weekend of practical activities and inspiring speakers is designed to help you develop your own personal leadership style, discover your individual strengths and weaknesses and pick up tips from the experts.

The weekend is for members of uniformed youth groups in school years 10-13. To get the most from the weekend, you should attend for both days, but if this is not possible, you can just come for one.

FAQs

Do I have to come for the whole weekend?

No, you can come for one or both days. To really get the most from the programme, we recommend attending for both days.

What sort of things will I be doing?

The weekend will be made up of a mixture of practical challenges and inspiring speakers. Stands will be run by the Royal Navy, Metropolitan Police Service, RAF Air Cadets, St John Ambulance and London Fire Brigade amongst others, and will include hose drills, an escape room, miniature tank driving, and a number of STEM challenges.

How old do I have to be?

You should be in school years 10-13 in September 2023.

Do I have to be super fit?

No, whilst some of the activities may be physically challenging, this is not a fitness test.

Can I stay overnight?

There is no overnight accommodation. Delegates will be required to travel to and from the City of London School each day. The weekend will run from 0930-1800 on the Saturday and 0930-1600 on the Sunday.

What should I bring?

You should wear your normal uniform and bring a water bottle, snacks and a packed lunch. Sun hats / raincoats may be advisable depending on the weather.

How much does it cost?

The weekend is free to attend if you belong to a uniformed youth group.

How do I book?
